

Convenient, On Demand Video Conferencing

Reinvent your business meetings

Face-to-face meetings offer more opportunities to make a positive impression. In a time when travel costs are prohibitive, time in the office is precious, and work-life balance is a struggle, it's good to know you can meet face to face without spending hours or days in cars, trains, airports and airplanes.

Reinvent the way you do business. Simply reserve a nearby Proximity suite – we have close to 4,500 worldwide. Conduct eye-to-eye meetings with colleagues, clients, applicants or partners. Turn key, state-of-the-art conferencing is affordable and requires no long-term commitment.

Balance high tech with high touch. ACT Proximity is the premier international full-service video conferencing provider. We can simplify video conferencing with consulting, training, corporate outsourcing, bridging service solutions and standard IP-based mobile video conferencing services.

When you don't want to worry about the technology or logistics for meetings that involve five or five thousand people, you can rely on our personalized service 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The ACT Proximity staff can provide levels of involvement that range from 'make sure all the connections are working' to 'meet and greet' to live assistance throughout the event.

Collaborate in real time. Share documents, spreadsheets, slides and more in a real-time environment. Supplement your meeting with options that include electronic white boards, document cameras, scan converters, laptops, DVD /VHS recordings and other business services.

Connect two or more sites quickly and easily. ACT Proximity suite rentals accommodate hundreds or thousands of participants in a high impact environment. Include audio, web, video, satellite and even special lighting, staging and onsite producers and technicians.
